

HOLY EUCHARIST—Rite I

The Word of God

OPENING ACCLAMATION (BCP, p. 323)

GLORIA (BCP, p. 324)

COLLECT OF THE DAY

O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord: Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys which thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love thee; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING – Isaiah 25:6-9

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

PSALM 24

1. The earth is the LORD’S and all that is in it, *
the world and all who dwell therein.
2. For it is he who founded it upon the seas *
and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.
3. “Who can ascend the hill of the LORD? *
and who can stand in his holy place?”
4. “Those who have clean hands and a pure heart,*
who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
nor sworn by what is a fraud.
5. They shall receive a blessing from the LORD * and a just reward from the God of their salvation.”
6. Such is the generation of those who seek him, *
of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
7. Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
8. “Who is this King of glory?” *
“The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle.”
9. Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
10. “Who is he, this King of glory?” *
“The LORD of host,
he is the King of glory.”

NEW TESTAMENT READING – Revelation 21:1-6a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, ‘See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.’ And the one who was seated on the throne said, ‘See, I am making all things new.’ Also he said, ‘Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.’ Then he said to me, ‘It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

THE GOSPEL LESSON – John 11:32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, ‘Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.’ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, ‘Where have you laid him?’ They said to him, ‘Lord, come and see.’ Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, ‘See how he loved him!’ But some of them said, ‘Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?’ Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, ‘Take away the stone.’ Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, ‘Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.’ Jesus said to her, ‘Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?’ So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, ‘Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.’ When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, ‘Lazarus, come out!’ The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, ‘Unbind him, and let him go.’

AID Relief for Victims of Hurricane Sandy

The pictures of devastation shown by the news media coming in from coastal New Jersey, New York City, and Connecticut are unthinkable, and yet Nashville knows precisely what is facing the communities hardest hit by the floods and winds of the recent hurricane. We also have two direct connections to ministries in the area: St. Simon's Episcopal Church, Mantoloking, NJ, where the Dean serves while on vacation during the summer, and Christ Church, Summit, NJ, where Matthew Corkern is the rector. In Mantoloking, the church building of St. Simon's is still standing but with significant damage. TV stations are reporting that 20 homes have been washed out to sea. A similar number were moved off their foundations and into the bay. Numerous year-round residents have had no place to turn. For some it will be months, if not years, before they have a place to call home again. In Summit, power outages and flood waters have displaced numerous local residents. Last night Christ Church opened its door and more than 150 people took shelter on the campus of this prominent parish in the Summit community. Any aid relief you wish to direct to those affected by the hurricane in these communities may be sent to Christ Church Cathedral. Please make your check out to: Christ Church Cathedral, memo: NJ Hurricane relief, Dean's discretionary fund (DDF).

Any checks received in the Cathedral office will be split 50/50 and sent directly to the Senior Wardens of St. Simon's, Mantoloking and Christ Church, Summit to aid in the hurricane relief needed in their respective communities.

May you be blessed in your giving. Peace.
