These 200 – 400 word meditations will offer insight into scripture through the lens of the writer's experience. Deadline for writings is Wednesday, January 30. If you are interested in writing for this project, please contact Becky Rochford, brochford@christcathedral.org, for more details.

Bring someone you love to this celebration of spiritual friendship and love. St. Aelred was a 12th century English Cistercian monk, who became abbot of the Rievaulx Abbey in 1147. A writer of remarkable spiritual depth, he wrote that just as there is a continuous dialogue and interchange of love between the three persons of the Trinity, so human beings are called to relationships based on mutual dialogue, exchange, sharing and self-giving. Learning to love through intimate relationships teaches us something of who God is, how God loves us, and how we should strive to love God--a way to a deeper and more intimate love of God.
