COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING – Exodus 34:29-35

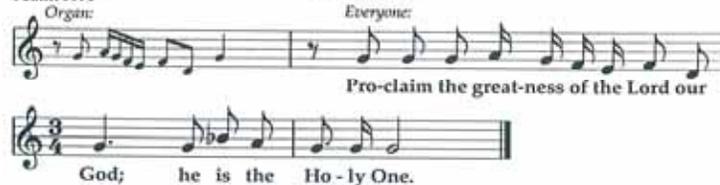

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterwards all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

PSALM 99:1-2, 6-9

Peter R. Hallock

Psalm 99: 9
Organ:

ANTIPHON
Everyone:

Pro-claim the great-ness of the Lord our God; he is the Ho-ly One.

Choir: The LORD is King; let the people tremble; he is enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth shake. The LORD is great in Zion; he is high above all peoples.

ANTIPHON

Choir: Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, they called upon the LORD, and he answered them. He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.

ANTIPHON

Choir: "O LORD our God, you answered them indeed; you were a God who forgave them, yet punished them for their evil deeds." Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our God and worship him upon his holy hill; for the LORD our God is the Holy One.

ANTIPHON

Permission is granted by the publisher to copy this psalm for congregational use.

NEW TESTAMENT READING – 2 Corinthians 3:12—4:2

Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit. Therefore, since it is by God’s mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God’s word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

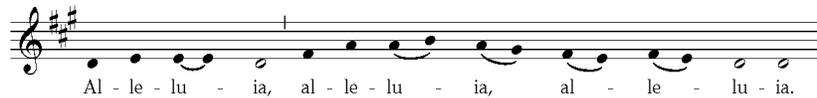

HYMN 137 – O wondrous type! O vision fair

Wareham

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Luke 9:28-36

Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, ‘Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah’—not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, ‘This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!’ When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

ALLELUIA

This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased..

ANTHEM

O nata lux

Thomas Tallis
(c. 1505-1585)

*O nata lux de lumine,
Jesu redemptor saeculi,
dignare clemens supplicum
Laudes preces que sumere.*

O Light of light, by love inclined,
Jesu, redeemer of mankind,
with loving-kindness deign to hear from suppliant voices praise and prayer.

*Qui carne quondam contegi
dignatus es properditis.
Nos membra confer effici,
tui beati corporis.*

Thou who to raise our souls from hell
didst deign in fleshly form to dwell,
vouchsafe us, when our race is run,
in thy fair Body to be one.

Please join in the singing of the Communion hymn.

THE CATHEDRAL WELCOMES

We welcome as our preacher this morning the Reverend Canon Peter Doll, who led the quiet retreat this week at St. Mary's for the clergy of the Diocese of Tennessee. Fr. Doll, a native of Washington, D.C., is a priest in the Church of England. He has ministered as a parish priest, university chaplain, and is now Canon Librarian of Norwich Cathedral. Educated at Yale and Oxford Universities, he is the author of works on church history, ecumenism, and liturgical spirituality. He was the speaker for the Sunday Forum this morning at 9:45 a.m.

WELCOME!

We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Please complete a Visitor's Card (you will find one in the pew rack) and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. A church member will be happy to answer questions about Christ Church Cathedral and your opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about our parish. Thank you for visiting us today!

FLOWERS

The flowers in the chancel are given to the glory of God and in memory of their mothers, Ruth Thackston and Josephine Colton Williams, who shared the same birthday, by Bettye Westermann and John O. Colton; and in gratitude for the life of Thomas Daugherty Rayson by his parents, Cary and Scott Rayson.

Cathedral Sunday Tours are available to parishioners and visitors following the closing organ voluntary on Sunday mornings. Please join a guide at the front of the Church near the lectern.

THANK YOU!

The ad hoc Committee on Parish Infrastructure wants to thank everyone who participated in small group discussions at the Annual Parish Meeting last week. We appreciate your willingness to engage openly with your fellow parishioners and assist us with our task of reviewing parish infrastructure. The Committee is in the process of reviewing all of your comments and will provide a report to the Vestry on the feedback you provided at its upcoming planning retreat. Your insights will serve to significantly inform and inspire the work ahead, so we thank you. If you have further thoughts or questions, please be in touch with Tyler Yarbrow, tyleryarbrow@gmail.com or 615.289.3959.

SUMMER INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES PRESTON TAYLOR MINISTRIES (PTM)

One of the agencies the Cathedral supports.

Know of a college student looking for a place to intern this summer? PTM has various internship opportunities within the Calvin House youth program, the 5th-6th grade Summer Salt Program, and the summer program for elementary students. This is a great chance for college students to be immersed in the world of a nonprofit as they gain work experience, hone leadership skills, and take on the responsibility of coordinating various aspects of a program. Please pass this on to anyone who comes to mind! With questions or interest, please contact Martha Willis, martha@preston Taylorministries.org.

ROOM IN THE INN

Men's coats and jeans are needed in sizes L, XL, and XXL.

Please contact David Morton, dmorton60@gmail.com, for more information or if you have clothing to donate.
