The Liturgy of the Palms

OPENING ANTHEM

Cantor or Celebrant
Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord;

People
Peace in heaven and glory in the high - est.

Celebrant: Let us pray

Assist us mercifully with your help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby you have given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PALM GOSPEL READING – Luke 19:28-40

After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, ‘Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, “Why are you untying it?” just say this: “The Lord needs it.”’ So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, ‘Why are you untying the colt?’ They said, ‘The Lord needs it.’ Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, ‘Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!

Peace in heaven,

and glory in the highest heaven!’

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, ‘Teacher, order your disciples to stop.’ He answered, ‘I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.’

BLESSING OF THE PALMS

The Celebrant then says the following blessing

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right to praise you, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of Kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way. Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Cantor or Celebrant
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

People
Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Word of God

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING – Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord GOD has given me
the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.
Morning by morning he wakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.
The Lord GOD has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious,
I did not turn backwards.
I gave my back to those who struck me,
and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;
I did not hide my face
from insult and spitting.

The Lord GOD helps me;
therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like flint,
and I know that I shall not be put to shame;
he who vindicates me is near.
Who will contend with me?
Let us stand up together.
Who are my adversaries?
Let them confront me.
It is the Lord GOD who helps me;
who will declare me guilty?
All of them will wear out like a garment;
the moth will eat them up.

| 9. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am in trouble; *
my eye is consumed with sorrow, and also my throat and my belly. 10. For my life is wasted with grief, and my years with sighing; *
my strength fails me because of affliction, and my bones are consumed. Refrain 11. I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbors,
a dismay to those of my acquaintance; *
when they see me in the street they avoid me. 12. I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind; *
I am as useless as a broken pot. Refrain | 13. For I have heard the whispering of the crowd;
fear is all around; *
they put their heads together against me;
they plot to take my life. 14. But as for me, I have trusted in you, O Lord. *
I have said, "You are my God. Refrain" 15. My times are in your hand; *
rescue me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me. 16. Make your face to shine upon your servant, * and in your loving-kindness save me." Refrain |

NEW TESTAMENT READING – Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

THE PASSION GOSPEL – Luke 23:1-49

The congregation remains seated until mention is made of "the place what is called the Skull" †

Then the assembly rose as a body and brought Jesus before Pilate. They began to accuse him, saying, 'We found this man perverting our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to the emperor, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king.' Then Pilate asked him, 'Are you the king of the Jews?' He answered, 'You say so.' Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, 'I find no basis for an accusation against this man.' But they were insistent and said, 'He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to this place.'

When Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean. And when he learned that he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him off to Herod, who was himself in Jerusalem at that time. When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had been wanting to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him and was hoping to see him perform some sign. He questioned him at some length, but Jesus gave him no answer. The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him. Even Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked him; then he put an elegant robe on him, and sent him back to Pilate. That same day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other; before this they had been enemies.

Pilate then called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people, and said to them, 'You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and here I have examined him in your presence and have not found this man guilty of any of your charges against him. Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us. Indeed, he has done nothing to deserve death. I will therefore have him flogged and release him.'

Then they all shouted out together, 'Away with this fellow! Release Barabbas for us!' (This was a man who had been put in prison for an insurrection that had taken place in the city, and for murder.) Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again; but they kept shouting, 'Crucify, crucify him!' A third time he said to them, 'Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no ground for the sentence of death; I will therefore have him flogged and then release him.' But they kept urgently demanding with loud shouts that he should be crucified; and their voices prevailed. So Pilate gave his verdict that their demand should be granted. He released the man they asked for, the one who had been put in prison for insurrection and murder, and he handed Jesus over as they wished.

As they led him away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming from the country, and they laid the cross on him, and made him carry it behind Jesus. A great number of the people followed him, and among them were women who were beating their breasts and wailing for him. But Jesus turned to them and said, 'Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For the days are surely coming when they will say, "Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed." Then they will begin to say to the mountains, "Fall on us"; and to the hills, "Cover us." For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?'

Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him. † When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. [[Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.']] And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' He replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, 'Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.' Having said this, he breathed his last. (Silence)

When the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God and said, 'Certainly this man was innocent.' And when all the crowds who had gathered there for this spectacle saw what had taken place, they returned home, beating their breasts. But all his acquaintances, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

HOLY WEEK NOTES

GENERAL

Meetings

In order to honor the solemnity of Holy Week, the Dean has asked that all administrative meetings of the Cathedral be rescheduled for other times. This announcement is inclusive of all staff, Vestry, Cluster, and committee meetings of the Cathedral.

Reconciliation of a Penitent

Throughout Holy Week, priests of the Cathedral will be available by appointment (and on Tuesdays in the Chapel from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.) for those seeking to make a Confession according to the form Reconciliation of a Penitent as listed on page 447 of the Book of Common Prayer, 1979. Also, during Holy Week, a priest will sit inside the altar rail in the Cathedral Chapel between 11 a.m. and 12 p.m., Monday through Wednesday, for those who wish to make unscheduled Holy Week confessions.

PALM SUNDAY

Reception

There will be a reception in the Parish Hall between Liturgies today.

MAUNDY THURSDAY

A Vigil with the Blessed Sacrament

Good Friday is the one day in the Church Year when the Holy Eucharist is not celebrated, as the Church mourns the death of the Messiah. But so as not to be denied the benefits of his Passion in the Sacrament, the tradition arose wherein the faithful kept vigil with the consecrated Bread and Wine from Maundy Thursday night until the time of its distribution on Good Friday (Mass of the Pre-Sanctified, see the Book of Common Prayer, 1979, p. 282). In order to facilitate this Vigil, the Cathedral Chapel will be prepared as an Altar of Repose (for the Reserved Sacrament) following the Stripping of the Altar on Maundy Thursday. A sign-up list is available at the Reception desk asking you to sign up for a one-hour vigil sometime during the night. Three people are asked to keep vigil at each hour. Volunteers at the Reception desk will let those in who come during the night for prayer. Silence is kept throughout the vigil. Candles may be lit at the close of one's time of prayer. Devotional resources for the hour will be made available in the Chapel, though the classical practices of Centering and Contemplative prayer are also frequently employed by those keeping vigil.

GOOD FRIDAY

The Good Friday Liturgy

The Good Friday Liturgy begin at 12 noon, so as to have the Cathedral's gathering conform more closely to the historical hour of the crucifixion. The liturgy will include the Liturgy of the Word, Sermon, the Solemn Collects, the Veneration of the Cross, the Reproaches, and Communion from the Reserved Sacrament.

Vergers Keeping Watch

Vergers will keep watch in the Nave from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

HOLY SATURDAY

Holy Saturday Liturgy

The Liturgy will be observed in the Nave at 10 a.m.

The Great Vigil of Easter

The Great Vigil of Easter will begin at 7 p. m. Bishop Bauerschmidt will celebrate and the Dean will preach.

EASTER DAY

Flowering of the Cross

On Easter morning a large wooden cross suitable for "flowering" will be placed at the top of the stairs by the handicapped access ramp exit to the side parking lot door. Bring flowers with you when you come to worship on Easter Day—something local, something from your garden—and place them in the cross. Whether before you worship or after (7 a.m., 8:30 a.m., or 11 a.m.), stop by and watch the cross grow flush with the colors of Christ's Resurrection!

Announcements

Reminders

Please bring bells for our Easter Vigil Celebration on March 30 at 7:00 p.m.

The SBC Parking Garage will not be available on Easter Sunday.

OPEN FOR PRAYER AND MEDITATION: During Holy week, the Cathedral will open its doors to the city for prayer and meditation from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. All may come and go for prayer as you are led. We are, however, calling for three members of the Cathedral community to be present for each hour of prayer and meditation on those days when the doors are open, as a sign of hospitality to those who will come and go. A sign up list may be found at the receptionist's desk.

You are cordially invited to join the Christ Church Cathedral Young Adults for a potluck
