HYMN 618 – Ye watchers and ye holy ones

Lasst uns erfreuen

OPENING ACCLAMATION (BCP, p. 299)

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

FIRST LESSON – Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: “As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever.”

ANTIPHON

Psalm 149: 1

Organ: Everyone:

Sing to the Lord a new song. Hal - - - le - lu - jah!

The musical notation is on a single staff with a treble clef. It begins with a 3/4 time signature and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are written below the staff, with hyphens under 'Hal' and 'le' to indicate long notes. The piece ends with a double bar line.

Choir: Let Israel rejoice in his Maker, let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
Let them praise his Name in the dance; let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.

ALL REPEAT THE ANTIPHON

Choir: For the Lord takes pleasure in his people and adorns the poor with victory.
Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; let them be joyful on their beds.

ALL REPEAT THE ANTIPHON

Choir: Let the praises of God be in their throat and a two-edged sword in their hand;
to wreak vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples.

ALL REPEAT THE ANTIPHON

Choir: To bind their kings in chains and their nobles with links of iron; to inflict on them the judgment decreed; this is glory for all his faithful people. Hallelujah!

ALL REPEAT THE ANTIPHON

SECOND LESSON – Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Luke 6:20-31

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

“Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

“But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

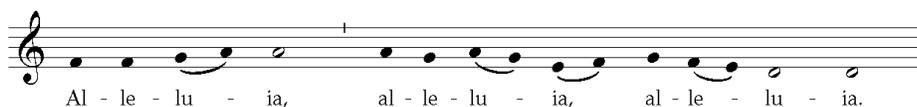

“Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

“Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets;

“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.”

ALLELUIA

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Anthem

How bright these glorious spirits shine

Timothy Rogers
 (b. 1961)

How bright these glorious spirits shine! Whence all their white array?
 How came they to the blissful seats of everlasting day?

Lo! these are they from sufferings great who came to realms of light;
 and in the blood of Christ have washed those robes that shine so bright.

Now with triumphal palms they stand before the throne on high, and serve the God they love amidst the glories of the sky.

Hunger and thirst are felt no more, nor suns with scorching ray;
 God is their sun whose cheering beams diffuse eternal day.

The lamb, which dwells amidst the throne, shall o'er them still preside, feed them with nourishment divine, and all their footsteps guide.

Midst pastures green he'll lead his flock, where living streams appear;
 and God the Lord from every eye shall wipe off every tear.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, the God whom we adore, be glory, as it was, is now, and shall be evermore.

William Cameron altered from Isaac Watts

Please join in the singing of the Communion hymn.

Hymn 279 – For thy dear saints, O Lord

St. George

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER (BCP, p. 365)

ALL SAINTS' BLESSING

May Almighty God, to whose glory we celebrate this festival of all the saints, be now and evermore your guide and companion in the way. Amen.

May God, who has bound us together in the company of the elect in this age and the age to come, attend to the prayers of his faithful servants on your behalf, as he hears your prayers for them. Amen.

May God, who has given us, in the lives of his saints, patterns of holy living and victorious dying, strengthen your faith and devotion, and enable you to bear witness to the truth against all adversity. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Duties include helping with the set-up of dinner, distributing clothes, doing laundry, providing transportation back to the Campus Room in the Inn, and general fellowship. If you are interested in ministering to homeless men this winter, or would like more information, please contact John Lavey at jlavey@hammock.com.

ON BEING A WAYFARER VOLUNTEER: Each Sunday a Wayfarer volunteer is listed in the Order of Worship. Have you ever wondered what a Wayfarer volunteer does? Before and after each service, you can find that particular Sunday's appointed Wayfarer volunteer in the back hall greeting and meeting with transients and homeless people who come to the Cathedral seeking help. The Wayfarer is the welcoming face at the Cathedral for people in need. All it requires is to commit to serve about two hours on one Sunday morning once every three months. For further information on becoming a Wayfarer volunteer, contact Bill Coke at wcoke1@bellsouth.net.

HAVE YOU REMEMBERED CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL IN YOUR WILL?

ARION PRESS FOLIO BIBLE

Beginning today, lectors at Christ Church Cathedral will read the Old and New Testament lessons from the new Arion Press Folio Bible. The Bible was purchased with funds from a bequest to the Cathedral by Mary Gideon Schillig.

The Bible is one of only 400 produced by the Arion Press of San Francisco, using traditional letterpress techniques and the finest materials and craftsmanship. The text features the contemporary translation and current scholarship of the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) and is printed from metal type on English mouldmade, all-cotton fiber paper. Hand-bound in leather, the Bible features hand-illuminated letters in gold and watercolors at the beginning of each book.

The Arion Press is one of the last shops in the world where all the work on a book is done under one roof. Press director Andrew Hoyem designed and printed the Bible there, and his colleagues cast the type, made the covers, and bound the Bible by hand. These artisans and their tools have been designated an endangered cultural treasure by the National Trust for Historic Preservation.
