COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly pray that, as your only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple, so we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts by Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Malachi 3:1-4

Thus says the Lord, See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight— indeed, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the LORD in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

PSALM 84

Mode 8

- 1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O LORD of hosts! *
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
- 2 The sparrow has found her a house
and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; *
by the side of your altars, O LORD of hosts,
my King and my God. Refrain
- 3 Happy are they who dwell in your house! *
they will always be praising you.
- 4 Happy are the people whose strength is in you! *
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way. Refrain
- 5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, * for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.
- 6 They will climb from height to height, *
and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion. Refrain
- 7 LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; *
hearken, O God of Jacob.

- 8 Behold our defender, O God; *
and look upon the face of your Anointed. Refrain
- 9 For one day in your courts is better than a thousand in my own room, *
and to stand at the threshold of the house of my God
than to dwell in the tents of the wicked.
- 10 For the LORD God is both sun and shield; *
he will give grace and glory; Refrain
- 11 No good thing will the LORD withhold * from those who walk with integrity.
- 12 O LORD of hosts, *
happy are they who put their trust in you! Refrain

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Hebrews 2:14-18

Since God's children share flesh and blood, Jesus himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

HYMN 51 – We the Lord's people

Decatur Place

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Luke 2:22-40

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, the parents of Jesus brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord"), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

"Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace,
according to your word;
for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel."

And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed-- and a sword will pierce your own soul too."

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Anthem

O how amiable are thy dwellings

Ralph Vaughn Williams
(1872-1958)

O how amiable are thy dwellings thou Lord of hosts!
My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord.
My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house,
and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young;
even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house:
they will be alway praising thee.
The glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us.
Prosper thou the work of our hands upon us.
O prosper thou our handywork.
O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home.

from Psalms 84 & 90

Please join in the singing of the Communion hymn.

WELCOME!

We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Page numbers refer to the Book of Common Prayer, which is the red book located in the rack on the back of the pew in front of you. The Hymnal is the blue book. A church member will be happy to answer questions about worship at Christ Church Cathedral and your opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. Please complete a Visitor's Card and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about our parish. Thank you for visiting us today!

Announcements

THE REVEREND H. JACOBA HURST TO ASSIST CHRIST CHURCH CLERGY

Father Hurst will serve the Cathedral as Priest Associate, and assist the Dean and the Curate in matters of pastoral care while Canon Manning is away on sabbatical. He will also be responsible for the Tuesday and Wednesday 12:15 p.m. celebrations of the Holy Eucharist. Father Hurst is not new to our congregation; he has faithfully assisted the Cathedral this past year by celebrating the Friday 12:15 p.m. chapel liturgy and being present for various other liturgies.

The Reverend H. Jacoba Hurst, a native of Kentucky, was ordained priest in June 1972 at Christ Church Cathedral in Lexington, Kentucky. After ordination, he served as college chaplain and director of United Campus Ministries at Morehead State University, in Morehead, Kentucky, as well as vicar of the Episcopal Church on campus. After two years, he was called to be curate at the Cathedral in Lexington. Following his ministry at the Cathedral, Father Hurst worked as director of an ecumenical organization in Vancouver, British Columbia, focusing on inter-faith dialog. St. Anne's Church in Tifton, Georgia called him to be rector in 1982 and his ministry at St. Anne's lasted twenty five years. During his tenure as rector, Father Hurst initiated the Stephen Ministry program, the first in the diocese, and developed an extensive pastoral outreach ministry using trained laypersons. He also served as the rural dean of southwest Georgia and the ecumenical officer of the diocese. He offered his gifts to the diocese in many capacities: president of the Standing Committee, member of Diocesan Council, Nominating Committee for the Episcopate, Liturgical Commission, Committee for Re-Structuring the Diocese, Pastoral Advisory Committee to the Bishop, Deputy to General Convention, as well as others.

He is a chaplain of the International Order of St. Luke the Physician, and founded the first chapter of the Order in the Diocese of Georgia, in addition to serving as chaplain for the state of Georgia. For three years, Father Hurst served as president of the Georgia State Council of Churches.

Following his retirement from St. Anne's parish several years ago, Father Hurst traveled extensively and lived in Colorado before moving to Nashville in 2011. In July of 2012, Bishop Bauerschmidt asked Father Hurst to serve as vicar of St. Luke's in Springfield on a part-time basis, where he continues to serve.

WEATHER ADVISORIES

When inclement weather strikes, please check the Cathedral website, christcathedral.org, for current notices about schedules at the Cathedral.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL SAVE THE DATE!

Vacation Bible School will be held June 23-26, 2014.

MATERIAL MAKING

DAYS: Come and enjoy fellowship and help make materials for the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Program. No particular talent required! We will cut, laminate, glue, paint, draw and do whatever is needed to help make materials for the children to use on Sunday mornings. We will meet on Wednesday, February 5 and 12 between 9:30 a.m. and 12 p.m. All sessions will take place in Cheek Hall and childcare is provided. Contact Becky Rochford at brochford@christcathedral.org for more information.

STATIONS OF THE NATIVITY: Stations of the Nativity is a series of prints that invites viewers to ponder, reflect, and experience God's amazing love for us through the miracle of the Incarnation. The prints will be available for viewing and meditation in the Wheeler Room through the season of Epiphany.

CHURCH IN THE YARD (CITY) TODAY: Every first Sunday of the month at 2 p.m., Christ Church Cathedral serves a meal to the hungry in the parish hall of Holy Trinity (615 6th Ave. S.). You are invited to come and assist us in this servant ministry. Ask for Stacey Nebel when you arrive or contact her at merundati13@yahoo.com for more information.

LENTEN REFLECTIONS 2014

This Lent we hope to publish a booklet of daily reflections written by Christ Church parishioners. We are looking for personal reflections from parishioners of all ages. We particularly welcome meditations that are tied to the Lenten daily readings. These 200 – 400 word meditations will offer insight into scripture through the lens of the writer's experience. These will be published in printed form and also on the Cathedral website. Deadline for writings is Wednesday, February 19. If you are interested in writing for this project, please contact Becky Rochford, brochford@christcathedral.org, for more details.

WOMEN'S RETREAT DREAMS: GOD'S FORGOTTEN LANGUAGE FEBRUARY 7-9, 2014

Join us for fellowship, prayer, and fun at the annual Women's Retreat at Montgomery Bell State Park. You can choose to attend the whole weekend (Friday evening to Sunday morning) or day-trip on Saturday only. As in years past, activities will feature yoga, hiking, quilting and massages, in addition to prayer and fellowship. The guest speaker will be Laura Huff Hileman. She is a Spiritual Director and Dream Consultant trained at the Haden Institute. She has been facilitating dream groups and teaching dream work since 1999. She now serves as a mentor for Haden students. Please contact Becky Taylor, beckyt@nashvillevision.com; Becca Ingle, bjingle@comcast.net; or Susie Ries, susieries@comcast.net for cabin availability and to learn more about the retreat.

FIRST FRIDAY

BLACK IN AMERICA: SCENES FROM "THE COLORED MUSEUM"

FEBRUARY 7, 6:00 P.M.

During Black History Month, First Friday will incorporate scenes from George C. Wolf's acclaimed "The Colored Museum" into the evening's worship. The evening will examine African American identity with frankness and humor, and with an eye towards racial reconciliation in and through the church.

Childcare provided and reception following the liturgy.

Evening Prayer Accompanied by Music of the Taizé Community

February 9, 2014
6:00 p.m.

A quiet, meditative, and reflective style of worship using music, simple chanting, periods of silence, and brief readings; worship of God that quiets the soul.

WATERCOLOR WORKSHOP TUESDAY-FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 11-14

Artist Susie Ries will lead a one-week watercolor workshop from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 a.m. each day. No previous experience is necessary. Class size is limited, and pre-registration is required.
