COLLECT OF THE DAY

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of your Name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness; and bring forth in us the fruit of good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Jeremiah 15:15-21

O LORD, you know;
remember me and visit me,
and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors.
In your forbearance do not take me away;
know that on your account I suffer insult.
Your words were found, and I ate them,
and your words became to me a joy
and the delight of my heart;
for I am called by your name,
O LORD, God of hosts.
I did not sit in the company of merry-makers,
nor did I rejoice;
under the weight of your hand I sat alone,
for you had filled me with indignation.
Why is my pain unceasing,
my wound incurable,
refusing to be healed?
Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook,
like waters that fail.
Therefore thus says the LORD:
If you turn back, I will take you back,
and you shall stand before me.
If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless,
you shall serve as my mouth.
It is they who will turn to you,
not you who will turn to them.
And I will make you to this people
a fortified wall of bronze;
they will fight against you,
but they shall not prevail over you,
for I am with you
to save you and deliver you,
says the LORD.
I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked,
and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Romans 12:9-21

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, “Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.” No, “if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads.” Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

HYMN 707 – Take my life, and let it be

Hollingside

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Matthew 16:21-28

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.” But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

Then Jesus told his disciples, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?”

“For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

ANTHEM

As the lyre to the singer

Steven Rickards
(b. 1955)

As the lyre to the singer, as one's thoughts to spoken word, as the rose to fragrant odor, so to me is Christ our Lord.
As the mother to the baby, as the traveller to his guide,
as the lake to streaming rainfall stands the Savior by my side.
As the sun to gladd'ning day spring, as the oil is to the flame,
as the fish is to the water, so to me is his sweet name.
Bound to him and by him holden as the flute and breath accord,
his for now and his forever is my soul to Christ the Lord.

CAMERON NATIONS SEMINARIAN

Cameron Nations is a candidate for Holy Orders in the Episcopal Diocese of Springfield, Illinois. Born in Jackson, Mississippi and raised in Franklin, Tennessee, Cameron attended the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where he graduated in 2012 with Honors in English Literature. He has studied in the U.K. twice: first at the University of York in 2011 and then at Westcott House, University of Cambridge in 2013. To burn off stress, Cameron enjoys cooking and writing, and he possesses a passion for growing the church-- especially among his own generation, the Millennials. He and his wife, Carly, currently live in Sewanee with their two dogs, Arthur and Sophie. Cameron is set to graduate from The School of Theology at Sewanee in May 2015 with his M.Div.

MOLLY MCGEE SHORT SEMINARIAN

Molly McGee Short is a postulant for the Priesthood from the Diocese of North Carolina. She received her Master of Divinity from Duke Divinity School in May of 2014, and is currently completing her Anglican year at The School of Theology at Sewanee. Molly grew up in the Episcopal Church in Mobile, Alabama, but did not sense the call to ministry until she attended college at Furman University. It was there that she met her now husband Michael, who teaches Middle School Humanities and Short Fiction at St. Andrew's -Sewanee School. For the last two years, Molly and Michael prayed and lived with the Community of the Franciscan Way, a Catholic Worker style community in Durham, NC. They hope to continue finding ways to live into God's call to daily prayer and works of mercy in Tennessee.

This is the Gate of Heaven!* DREAMWORK AS SPIRITUAL PRACTICE: Jacob’s dream of the ladder shows us that there is a living connection between ourselves and the Holy Wisdom that comes through our dreams. From Jacob’s story, we see how to make a spiritual practice of listening to our own dreams and integrating their wisdom into our waking lives as a source of wonder, guidance, challenge, and love. Join us Wednesday, September 10, at 6:30 p.m., when Laura Huff Hileman introduces the basics of dreamwork as an ancient but new spiritual practice gaining recognition in the church today. For more information, contact Becky Rochford at brochford@christcathedral.org or Laura Huff Hileman at laura@firebynight.net.

During this seven-week class, participants will experience the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd presentations that we offer to the children in Sunday school. For more information, contact Becky Rochford at brochford@christcathedral.org or 615.255.7729.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR HABITAT FOR HUMANITY UNITY BUILD: Christ Church Cathedral will participate in the 2014 Habitat For Humanity Unity Build on Sunday, September 21, partnering with volunteers from the West End Synagogue. About 25 volunteers are needed to help install kitchen cabinets, finish interior painting, install countertops, and complete the front porch. Registration will begin at 7 a.m. at the work site in the Edison Park subdivision in Antioch. Work will start promptly at 7:30 a.m. and should be finished by 3:30 p.m. A Eucharistic Visitor will be sent from the 8:30 a.m. Liturgy at the Cathedral to bring Communion to all Cathedral volunteers. In addition to the 25 volunteers needed for construction work, Habitat recommends three additional volunteers to handle breakfast and coffee, and five additional volunteers to coordinate lunch and snacks. If you have questions or would like to volunteer, please contact Fielding Logan at fielding@qprime.com. There will be an interfaith Celebration Service at the Temple, 5015 Harding Road, on September 12, for all who wish to commemorate the Unity Build.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING AN ACOLYTE? The Cathedral is always interested in training young parishioners between 5th and 12th grades to serve as acolytes. This is a great way for young people to take a leadership role in an important church ministry. Training sessions will be offered in the near future.
