COLLECT OF THE DAY

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Jonah 3:10 – 4:11

When God saw what the people of Nineveh did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry. He prayed to the LORD and said, “O LORD! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and ready to relent from punishing. And now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.” And the LORD said, “Is it right for you to be angry?” Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city.

The LORD God appointed a bush, and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort; so Jonah was very happy about the bush. But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered. When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

But God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?” And he said, “Yes, angry enough to die.” Then the LORD said, “You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labor and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night. And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?”

The Lord is gra - cious and full of com - pas - sion.

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Philippians 1:21-30

For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well— since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

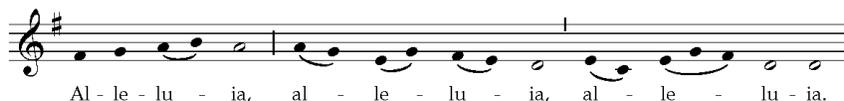

HYMN 404 – We will extol you, ever-blessed Lord

Old 124th

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Matthew 20:1-16

Jesus said, “The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o’clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace; and he said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o’clock, he did the same. And about five o’clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, ‘Why are you standing here idle all day?’ They said to him, ‘Because no one has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard.’ When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.’ When those hired about five o’clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, ‘These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.’ But he replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?’ So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

ANTHEM

O God, thou art my God

Henry Purcell
(1685-1759)

O God, thou art my God;
early will I seek thee.

My soul thirsteth for thee,
my flesh also longeth after thee
in a barren and dry land,
where no water is.

Thus have I looked for thee in holiness,
that I might behold thy power and glory.

For thy loving, lovingkindness is better than life itself.
My lips shall praise thee.

As long as I live will I magnify thee on this manner,
and lift up my hands in Thy name,
because thou hast been my helper.
therefore under the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
Hallelujah.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

Anthem

The Apple Tree

David Ashley White
(b. 1944)

The tree of life my soul hath seen,
laden with fruit, and always green;
the trees of nature fruitless be compared with Christ, the apple tree.

His beauty doth all things excel;
by faith I know, but ne'er can tell the glory which I now can see,
in Jesus Christ, the apple tree.

For happiness I long have sought,
and pleasure dearly I have bought:
I missed of all; but now I see
'tis found in Christ, the apple tree.

I'm weary with my former toil,
here I will sit and rest a while:
under the shadow I will be,
of Jesus Christ, the apple tree.

This fruit doth make my soul to thrive,
it keeps my dying faith alive;
which makes my soul in haste to be with Jesus Christ, the apple tree.

Please join in the singing of the Communion hymn.

Salama Institute (one of the agencies the Cathedral supports) Salama is the Swahili word for “peace.” The institute provides life-changing programs that equip children with skills needed for success in life. Salama nurtures lives of integrity and provides hope through the foundation of Christian faith.

WELCOME!

We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Page numbers refer to the Book of Common Prayer, which is the red book located in the rack on the back of the pew in front of you. The Hymnal is the blue book. A church member will be happy to answer questions about worship at Christ Church Cathedral and your opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. Please complete a Visitor's Card and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about our parish. Thank you for visiting us today!

FLOWERS

The flowers in the chancel are given to the glory of God and in thanksgiving for the marriage of Anne Nichols Granbery and John Gillespie Barnes, Jr.

COFFEE MINUTE

You are invited to gather with familiar faces and greet new friends after the 11 a.m. Liturgy. Stop by the Parish Hall for an informal time of fellowship and a cup of freshly brewed coffee. Tea will also be available, as will homemade cookies.

CATHEDRAL TOURS

Tours are available to parishioners and visitors following the closing organ voluntary on Sunday mornings. Please join a guide at the front of the Church near the lectern.

FOR THE HEARING IMPAIRED

Hearing assistance devices are available at the reception desk for use during worship. It is recommended that you bring your own earphones or ear buds for personal comfort.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SACRED SPACE FOR THE CITY ARTS SERIES PRESENTS AN EVENING OF SCANDINAVIAN FOLK AND GOSPEL Wednesday, October 1 at 7:00 p.m.

The Art Series season kicks off on October 1 with a special performance by Norwegian artists Solveig Leithaug on guitar and Alexander Rybak on violin. Ms. Leithaug, who is known for singing Scandinavian folk music as well as gospel, has 14 solo recordings and three best-selling children's CDs to her credit. The Dove Award-winning recording artist has served as a guest artist at official Parliament functions, national and international conferences, television broadcasts, and inner-city and prison outreach events. Alexander Rybak displayed prodigious musical talent at an early age. After emigrating with his parents from Minsk, Belarus, to Norway, he studied violin and piano; by the time he was a teenager, he was performing on the violin with orchestras around the world. His breakthrough came in 2009, when he won the Eurovision Song Contest with his original composition "Fairytale", which went on to top the charts all over Europe. At 28, he has released four albums and continues to tour throughout the world. The performance is free and open to the public.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS AT THE CATHEDRAL: THE NEW TESTAMENT AND JEWISH-CHRISTIAN RELATIONS.

September 24. Program 6:30-7:30 p.m.

During this series, Dr. Amy-Jill Levine will look at the many misconceptions that Jews and Christians continue to hold regarding the relationship of the New Testament to its Jewish context. Dinner: 5:30 p.m. (reservations needed) Suggested donation: $5 for adults and $3 for children. Childcare provided. Please call Marti Lawson at 615.255.7729 for dinner reservations.

Dinner reservations are required by 4 p.m. on Monday each week.

TITHE OF TIME: Earlier this year, the Vestry approved a new Mission Structure, which groups our various ministries into eight Commissions. With the new Mission Structure comes an opportunity for all members of the Cathedral to renew their commitment to the mission and life of this community. You should already have received a Tithe of Time email questionnaire. If you have not filled out the questionnaire, please take a few moments to consider how you can give of your time and talents to this blessed community. Go to christcathedral.org and complete the Tithe of Time questionnaire.

FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS AND BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 10:00 A.M.

If you or your child or grandchild has a dog, cat, frog, newt, mouse, guinea pig, hamster, chameleon, fish or anything else in the animal kingdom that could use a blessing, plan to bring your pet to this special Liturgy. Pets should be in a carrier or on a leash.

SACRED SPACE FOR THE CITY ARTS SERIES

presents

An Organ Concert by MARK LAUBACH

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 12, 4:00 P.M.

The concert is sponsored by a 2014 gift from Lois and Peter Fyfe.

The first organ concert of the season will be presented by Mark Laubach, organist and choirmaster of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, and honorary Canon Precentor of the Diocese of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Since winning first prize in the 1984 American Guild of Organists (AGO) National Young Artists' Competition in Organ Performance, Canon Laubach has been known and respected throughout the United States and abroad as a gifted recitalist.

Admission is free and open to the public. For more information, go to christcathedral.org.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING AN ACOLYTE? The Cathedral is always interested in training young parishioners between 5th and 12th grades to serve as acolytes. This is a great way for young people to take a leadership role in an important church ministry. Training sessions will be offered in the near future. If you would like to find out more, please email Pamela Eddy at pamela.eddy624@gmail.com or the Reverend Joshua Caler at jcaler@christcathedral.org

JOIN A FOYER GROUP

FOYER GROUPS are made up of 8 to 10 members of the Cathedral who have expressed an interest in getting to know their fellow parishioners better. The groups meet casually once a month; the format and time of the meetings are determined by each group.

FELLOWSHIP IN OUR CATHEDRAL IS STRENGTHENED by the ties we form among ourselves. Foyer groups bring together a cross-section of parishioners that include old, young, single, married, new members, and long-time members of our community. By getting to know people within our Cathedral family better, our lives together in Christ are enriched.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN JOINING A FOYER GROUP, please go to christcathedral.org/InOurChurch/FoyerGroups to register. You will be assigned to a group and will receive a list of all group members and the group leader. The group leader will then contact you.

Please sign up by Sunday, September 28. We plan to have the group assignments made by October 1 so groups may begin meeting in October.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, contact Brent Clark, brent.clark@hcahealthcare.com or Rees Mitchell, rees.mitchell@comcast.net.

WEAPON-FREE

The Cathedral clergy and Vestry have declared the Cathedral to be a weapon-free place of worship, prayer, study, and fellowship, as a sign of Eucharistic peace. Please leave any weapons you are licensed to carry at home or in your car when you visit Christ Church Cathedral.

HAVE YOU REMEMBERED CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL IN YOUR WILL?
