To Visitors

Welcome! We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Page numbers refer to the Book of Common Prayer, which is the red book located in the rack on the back of the pew in front of you. The Hymnal is the blue book. Anyone sitting near you will be happy to answer questions about worship at Christ Church Cathedral and opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. Please complete a Visitor's Card and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about the Cathedral. Thank you for visiting!

COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Genesis 17:1-7, 15-16

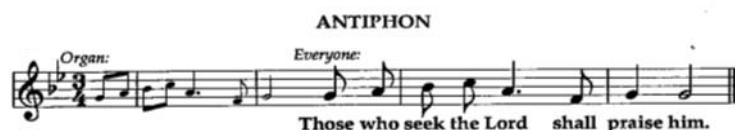

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said to him, "I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless. And I will make my covenant between me and you, and will make you exceedingly numerous." Then Abram fell on his face; and God said to him, "As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations. No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. I will establish my covenant between me and you, and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you."

God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her."

PSALM 22:22-30

Antiphon to be sung by all

Peter R. Hallock

Choir: Praise the LORD, you that fear him; stand in awe of him, O offspring of Israel; all you of Jacob's line, give glory. For he does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty; neither does he hide his face from them; but when they cry to him he hears them.

ANTIPHON

Choir: The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and those who seek the LORD shall praise him: "May your heart live for ever!" All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations shall bow before him.

ANTIPHON

Choir: For kingship belongs to the LORD; he rules over the nations. To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in worship; all who go down to the dust fall before him.

ANTIPHON

Choir: My soul shall live for him; my descendants shall serve him; they shall be known as the LORD's for ever. They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn the saving deeds that he has done.

ANTIPHON

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Romans 4:13-25

The promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations") -- in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become "the father of many nations," according to what was said, "So numerous shall your descendants be." He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. Therefore his faith "was reckoned to him as righteousness." Now the words, "it was reckoned to him," were written not for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

HYMN 707 – Take my life, and let it be

Hollingside

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Mark 8:31-38

Then Jesus began to teach his disciples that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

VERSE

If anyone would come after me, let him take up his cross and follow me.

Draw nigh and take the body of the Lord,
and drink the holy blood for you outpoured.
He, with heavenly bread makes them that hunger whole,
gives living waters to the thirsting soul.
Offered was He for greatest and for least,
Himself the victim, Himself the priest.

CHORISTER FESTIVAL EVENSONG

SUNDAY, MARCH 8, 2015
4:00 PM

The Cathedral's 16th annual Chorister Festival will take place at the Cathedral on the weekend of March 7 and 8. The Cathedral Senior Choristers will host a group of Choristers coming from as far away as St. Louis, Missouri and Arlington, Virginia as well as from several other parishes throughout the Southeast. This year as our guest director we welcome Michael McCarthy, Canon for Music at Washington National Cathedral. Choristers will arrive in time to spend the whole day on Saturday rehearsing, having recreation and social time, and being prepared for singing the 11 a.m. Eucharist at the Cathedral and the Festival Evensong that will take place on Sunday afternoon, March 8, at 4 p.m. The Festival Evensong is free and open to the public. You are invited to join us. Childcare provided. There will be a reception following Evensong.

LENTEN REFLECTIONS BOOKLET

The Lenten Reflections booklets are available. Reflections are being posted on the website at christcathedral.org. These reflections are intended to enhance your daily devotion throughout the season of Lent.

OPEN FOR PRAYER

During the weekdays of Lent, the Cathedral will open its doors to the city for prayer and meditation from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. All may come and go for prayer as they are led.

LENT, EASTER, FAST, AND FEAST

The act of eating is central to the Christian life. To fast, to feast, to receive the Sacrament - what and how and when we eat is a devotional act for the Christian. During this Lent, the Topics for Christian Reflection class will be dedicated to the Christian practices associated with food and eating and what they teach us about prayer, the body, time, and devotion to God. Please join us in the Cathedral Annex Building Common Room during the Christian Education hour on Sundays during Lent. For more information, please contact Fr. Joshua at jcaler@christcathedral.org.

CHURCH IN THE YARD (CITY) TODAY: Every first Sunday of the month at 2 p.m., Christ Church Cathedral serves a meal to the hungry in the parish hall of Holy Trinity (615 6th Ave. S.). You are invited to come and assist in this servant ministry. For more information, please contact Gina Williams at ginakwilliams@gmail.com.

LIBERIA DRIVE HELD OVER UNTIL MARCH 8: Christ Church Cathedral will host a drive to help fill this year's Liberian shipping container. This will take place in lieu of a Lenten Food Drive this year. Please bring your donations to the Baptistry area in the Nave on Sundays. The drive will end on Sunday, March 8. Items needed: Dry food items (rice, beans, corn meal, flour, non-fat dry milk, sugar, baking powder/soda, salt), peanut butter, toothbrushes and toothpaste, school supplies, children's books and clothing (all sizes, male and female).

WATERCOLOR WORKSHOP LED BY SUSIE RIES: Monday-Friday, March 2-6, 9 a.m.-2 p.m. No previous experience is necessary. Class size is limited, and pre-registration is required. Cost is $200, and includes lunch. Register by email to Susie Ries at susiewries@gmail.com or pay at christcathedral.org/sacredspace.

NEIGHBORHOOD GROUPS ARE NOW FORMING! The Neighborhood Parish Committee of the Commission for Parish Life is working to make every member of the Church feel closer to the Cathedral community by fostering relationships within our neighborhoods. Through communication and outreach, we are striving to provide support, assistance, and fellowship to our Christ Church Cathedral family in the neighborhoods where they live. Neighborhood groups are now forming. Please contact Terri Edwards at tesu9903@comcast.net to join your neighborhood group. Neighborhood leaders are still needed for certain areas. Please consider volunteering your time.

FIRST FRIDAY
MARCH 6, 2015

SUMMER MISSION TRIPS 2015

This summer our youth have two amazing opportunities to experience the world and serve God inside and outside of Nashville, Tennessee. Mission trips include project work, shared meals, connections with members of the community, morning and evening prayer, and reflection, socializing and fun. Through these experiences, our youth build friendships, create bonds with people in the community they serve, and deepen their Christian faith.

URBAN MISSION-NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE JUNE 22-26. Urban Mission is an overnight "mini-camp" for our middle school youth. We'll stay at St. Augustine's Chapel on the Vanderbilt campus. During the day we will travel all over Nashville to serve with various organizations, and in the evening we will return to St. Augustine's for dinner, games, movies and evening prayer. Some of the organizations on our list are: Magdalane House/Thistle Farms, Nashville Food Project, Matthew 25, Nashville Cares, St. Luke's Community House, Second Harvest, Society of St. Andrew and Open Table. Our week will also include a half-day excursion to explore the Music City and cool off with ice cream at Bobbie's Dairy Dip. Open to youth in rising grades 6-8. Cost is $200 or $150 if you register by April 1.

URBAN ADVENTURE-NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA JULY 11-19*. Urban Adventure is a week-long domestic experience for our high school youth. This year our adventure will take us to New Orleans as we partner with Church of the Annunciation and St. Bernard Project. Our efforts will begin in the city's Broadmoor neighborhood, where we'll lodge at Church of the Annunciation, an Episcopal relief hub mobilized in response to the 2005 disaster. During the week, we'll serve with St. Bernard Project Rebuilding Program in their continued efforts to rebuild the St. Bernard Parish and the Lower 9th Ward after the devastation caused by Hurricane Katrina. Our team will help rebuild homes for senior citizens, people with disabilities and/or families with children living in poverty. In addition to serving, we will participate in daily prayer services and worship at Church of the Annunciation. Our weeklong trip will also include time to soak up the amazing culture in the Big Easy including visiting historic Jackson Square and eating beignets at Café Du Monde. Open to youth in grades rising 9-12. Cost is $400 or $350 if you register by April 1.

We'll begin our drive on late Saturday afternoon on July 11 and return by noon on July 19. Our work-week will be July 12-18.*

Early bird registration is now and ends April 1. The early bird cost is $150 for Urban Mission Nashville and $350 for Urban Adventure New Orleans. After April 1, the cost increases $50 for each trip. You can pay a $75 deposit (non-refundable) to hold your spot or pay all the fee in its entirety. All remaining balances are due by June 1.

To register go to: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/ccc-summer-mission-trips-tickets-15490420264>

For more information, please contact
Alison Bocking at abocking@christcathedral.org or
