To Visitors

Welcome! We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Page numbers refer to the Book of Common Prayer, which is the red book located in the rack on the back of the pew in front of you. The Hymnal is the blue book. Anyone sitting near you will be happy to answer questions about worship at Christ Church Cathedral and opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. Please complete a Visitor's Card and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about the Cathedral. Thank you for visiting!

OPENING ACCLAMATION (BCP, p. 299)

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST LESSON – Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.
Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.
And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.
The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

PSALM 104:25-35, 37

- 25 O LORD, how manifold are your works! *
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.
- 26 Yonder is the great and wide sea
with its living things too many to number, *
creatures both small and great.
- 27 There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan, *
which you have made for the sport of it.
- 28 All of them look to you *
to give them their food in due season.
- 29 You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
- 30 You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.
- 31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.
- 32 May the glory of the LORD endure for ever; *
may the Lord rejoice in all his works.
- 33 He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they smoke.
- 34 I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
- 35 May these words of mine please him; *
I will rejoice in the LORD.
- 37 Bless the LORD, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!

THE SECOND LESSON – Romans 8:22-27

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

THE GOSPEL LESSON – John 15:26-27; 16:4b-15

Jesus said to his disciples, “When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

“I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But, now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

SERMON – The Reverend Canon Gene B. Manning

A moment of silence and reflection follows the sermon.

Reconciliation Ministries (one of the agencies the Cathedral supports) works to reduce recidivism by strengthening relationships between individuals incarcerated in Tennessee prisons and their families, and by advocating for prisoners and their families.

FOR THE HEARING IMPAIRED

Hearing assistance devices are available at the reception desk for use during worship. It is recommended that you bring your own earphones or ear buds for personal comfort.

CATHEDRAL TOURS

Tours are available to parishioners and visitors following the dismissal on Sunday mornings. Please join a guide at the front of the Church near the lectern.

SERMON NOTES:

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MONDAY, MAY 25, THE CATHEDRAL OFFICES WILL BE CLOSED FOR MEMORIAL DAY.

MAY ECONOMIC JUSTICE CHALLENGE: REDUCE THE PACKAGING WE USE

Grant that we, remembering the account we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of your good gifts. (BCP, p 259).

One way of being faithful stewards of the gifts of creation is not to use more than is necessary. This month, we challenge you to pay attention to how much packaging is in things you use and work to reduce your use of packaging. A few easy ways to start: Bring reusable bags whenever you shop (keep some handy in your car or purse). When making purchasing choices, consider the amount and type of packaging, and give preference to items with less and/or recyclable packaging. Bring your own travel mug to the coffee shop and your own refillable water bottle to work. Let's work this month to follow the common "Reduce, reuse, recycle" mantra for good creation stewardship!

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY

The Wednesday Bible Study will begin the book of Acts on June 10. This is a good opportunity to join the group at the beginning of a new book. You might be especially interested if you have been watching A.D. The Bible Continues, which focuses on the first ten chapters of Acts. Join us as we read, question, and debate. We discuss one chapter per week and no other preparation is necessary. Feel free to drop in at 11 a.m. Wednesdays in the Wheeler Room.

EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY (EfM)

EfM is a Christian education and formation program developed by the School of Theology at Sewanee, which takes place at Episcopal churches across the country and online. EfM covers the basics of a theological education in the Old and New Testaments, church history, liturgy, and theology with emphasis on theological reflection. Students enroll for one year at a time, and complete the course in four years. More information is available on the EfM website, Sewanee.edu/EfM. The cost is $350/year. Partial scholarships may be available. Christ Church groups meet on Tuesday evenings or Wednesday mornings during the academic year and each has room for a limited number of new students. Enrollment for new and returning students is underway now on a first-come first-served basis. The registration deadline is August 3. If you are interested in beginning or continuing participation, please contact Becky Rochford, brochford@christcathedral.org or 615.255.7729.

SUMMER MISSION TRIPS 2015

This summer our youth have two amazing opportunities to experience the world and serve God inside and outside of Nashville, Tennessee. Mission trips include project work, shared meals, connections with members of the community, morning and evening prayer, and reflection, socializing and fun. Through these experiences, our youth build friendships, create bonds with people in the community they serve, and deepen their Christian faith.

URBAN MISSION-NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE JUNE 22-26. Urban Mission is an overnight "mini-camp" for our middle school youth. Open to youth in rising grades 6-8. Cost is $200.

URBAN ADVENTURE-NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA JULY 11-19*. Urban Adventure is a week-long domestic experience for our high school youth. This year our adventure will take us to New Orleans as we partner with Church of the Annunciation and St. Bernard Project. Open to youth in grades rising 9-12. Cost is $400.

We'll begin our drive on late Saturday afternoon on July 11 and return by noon on July 19. Our work-week will be July 12-18.*

You can pay a $75 deposit (non-refundable) to hold your spot or pay all the fee in its entirety. All remaining balances are due by June 1.

BAPTISMAL FONT

Given to the Glory of God and to Christ Church. in 1887, the font was a gift to the Parish by the rector, Rev. William Graham, who had been born in Scotland. Of Sicilian marble, the font was designed for the first Scottish Exhibition in Edinburgh in 1886. Symbols are carved on the sides of the font.

Under the floor of the Baptistry is the only known immersion pool in an Episcopal Church in Tennessee. Old Christ Church, at the corner of High and Church, also had an immersion pool. The Parish Registers reveal that only two baptisms by immersion took place in Old Christ Church and three in the present church.

The Cathedral Archives is assembling a detailed report of all Gifts, Memorials, and Bequests from 1831 through 2014. This material was produced through research of the Vestry Minutes, church bulletins, newsletters and the annual reports of Christ Church Cathedral and Davidson County Will records. For more information, go to archives.christcathedral.org or refer to the Book of Remembrance in the Wheeler Room.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHMEN OF TENNESSEE 69TH ANNUAL LAYMEN'S CONFERENCE, AUGUST 14-16, 2015

All men are invited to "come to the mountain...for renewal, refreshment, and reflection". The conference will feature as speakers the Reverend Ian Morgan Cron, Dr. Jim Bailey, and the Reverend Charles Maynard. Activities will include a BBQ cooking contest, bluegrass jam, choir, hiking, sports, and more. Go online at tinchurchmen.org to register and learn more about the event.

BREAKING BREAD AT 6

Beginning October 18, the Cathedral will add a fourth Sunday Liturgy, gathering in the evening.

*Informal worship in the tradition of Common Prayer.
Hymns accompanied by local musicians.
Come as you are. Come with a friend.
All are Welcome!*

Watch for more details over the summer and begin spreading the word!
