To Visitors

Welcome! We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Page numbers refer to the Book of Common Prayer, which is the red book located in the rack on the back of the pew in front of you. The Hymnal is the blue book. Anyone sitting near you will be happy to answer questions about worship at Christ Church Cathedral and opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. Please complete a Visitor's Card and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about the Cathedral. Thank you for visiting!

COLLECT OF THE DAY

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Amos 7:7-15

This is what the LORD God showed me: the LORD was standing beside a wall built with a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. And the LORD said to me, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A plumb line.” Then the LORD said, “See, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel; I will never again pass them by;

the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate,
and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.”

Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying, “Amos has conspired against you in the very center of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words. For thus Amos has said, ‘Jeroboam shall die by the sword,

and Israel must go into exile away from his land.’”

And Amaziah said to Amos, “O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, earn your bread there, and prophesy there; but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom.”

Then Amos answered Amaziah, “I am no prophet, nor a prophet's son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore trees, and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to my people Israel.’”

- 8 I will listen to what the LORD God is saying, *
for he is speaking peace to his faithful people
and to those who turn their hearts to him.
- 9 Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him, *
that his glory may dwell in our land. Refrain
- 10 Mercy and truth have met together; *
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- 11 Truth shall spring up from the earth, *
and righteousness shall look down from heaven. Refrain
- 12 The LORD will indeed grant prosperity, *
and our land will yield its increase.
- 13 Righteousness shall go before him, *
and peace shall be a pathway for his feet. Refrain

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

HYMN 295 – Sing praise to our Creator

Christus, der ist mein Leben

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Mark 6:14-29

King Herod heard of the demons cast out and the many who were anointed and cured, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him." But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised."

For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it." And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer." Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

Anthem

Show us your mercy, O Lord

Peter R. Hallock
(1924-2014)

Show us your mercy, O Lord,
and grant us your salvation.
I will listen to what the Lord God is saying,
for he proclaims peace to his faithful people
and to those who turn their hearts to him.
Truly, his salvation is near to those who fear him,
that his glory may dwell in our land.

SERMON NOTES:

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BEQUEST BY MARY GIDEON SCHILLIG

Given to the Glory of God and to Christ Church, Mary Gideon Schillig's bequest of $3,300,000 was received at the Cathedral in 2011. Mary Gideon was born in Memphis. She graduated from Southwestern (now Rhodes College). She met her husband Dr. Stephen Schillig when she worked at Southwestern Medical Center. Mary's husband and their only child Ruth died within an hour of each other on October 29, 2001. Their double funeral was held on November 3, 2001, at the Cathedral. A devoted Christ Church member, Mrs. Schillig served as the Altar Guild chair for many years. She died on November 10, 2007.

By Fletch Coke, Cathedral Archivist

The Cathedral Archives have assembled a detailed report of all Gifts, Memorials, and Bequests from 1831 through 2014. This material was produced through research of the Vestry Minutes, church bulletins, newsletters and the annual reports of Christ Church Cathedral, and Davidson County Will records. For more information, go to archives.christcathedral.org or refer to the Book of Remembrance in the Wheeler Room.

REBUILD THE CHURCHES FUND

At the end of June, four predominantly black churches were burned down by arsonists. The Rebuild the Churches Fund has been established to collect donations for the rebuilding of these churches. All money received will be divided equally among the congregations.

The fund is being managed and funds will be disbursed by Christ Church Cathedral (Episcopal) in St. Louis. All contributions are tax deductible. To donate, please go to <https://goo.gl/cVCyIS>

You may also send a check with "Rebuild the Churches Fund" in the memo line to:

EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY (EfM)

EfM is a Christian education and formation program developed by the School of Theology at Sewanee, which takes place at Episcopal churches across the country and online. EfM covers the basics of a theological education in the Old and New Testaments, church history, liturgy, and theology with emphasis on theological reflection. Students enroll for one year at a time and complete the course in four years. More information is available on the EfM website, efm.sewanee.edu. The cost is $350/year. Partial scholarships may be available. Christ Church groups meet on Tuesday evenings or Wednesday mornings during the academic year and each has room for a limited number of new students. Enrollment for new and returning students is underway now on a first-come first-served basis. The registration deadline is August 3. If you are interested in beginning or continuing participation, please contact Becky Rochford, brochford@christcathedral.org or 615.255.7729.

CATHEDRAL'S HANDS OF MERCY EVENT NASHVILLE FOOD PROJECT

SATURDAY, AUGUST 22
9:00 A.M. TO 12:00 P.M.

"Hands of Mercy" events are one-time opportunities for members of the Cathedral congregation to serve and benefit a worthy institution supported by the Cathedral. The next Hands of Mercy event will be August 22, 2015, at the Nashville Food Project, located on the campus of Woodmont Christian Church at 3605 Hillsboro Pike. Approximately 35 volunteers are needed to work in TNFP's garden and prepare food. Garden volunteers will work from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m., and food prep will take place from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. The food prep team will prepare meals in the kitchen, using recovered, donated, and garden-grown food to cook healthy hot meals. There's a lot of creativity involved in planning meals based on what comes in from the food donation partners—and a lot of work for the volunteers who chop, slice, clean, assemble, blanch, compost, and cook. Children age 10 and up are welcome to participate, so this will be a wonderful opportunity for families to work together to help the vulnerable populations served by the Nashville Food Project. For more information or to volunteer, please contact Charles Hall at charles.w.hall@vanderbilt.edu.
