To Visitors

Welcome! We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Page numbers refer to the Book of Common Prayer, which is the red book located in the rack on the back of the pew in front of you. The Hymnal is the blue book. Anyone sitting near you will be happy to answer questions about worship at Christ Church Cathedral and opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. Please complete a Visitor's Card and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about the Cathedral. Thank you for visiting!

HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE II

PRELUDE

Partita No. 2 in D minor, BWV 1004
Allemande
Gigue

Johann Sebastian Bach
(1685-1750)

The Word of God

OPENING ACCLAMATION (BCP, p. 355)

SONG OF PRAISE 574 – Before thy throne, O God, we kneel (stanza 1)

St. Petersburg

COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – 2 Kings 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, "Give it to the people and let them eat." But his servant said, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" So he repeated, "Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and have some left.'" He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.

PSALM 145:10-19

- | | |
|--|--|
| 10 All your works praise you, O LORD, *
and your faithful servants bless you. | 15 The LORD upholds all those who fall; *
he lifts up those who are bowed down. |
| 11 They make known the glory of your kingdom *
and speak of your power; | 16 The eyes of all wait upon you, O LORD, *
and you give them their food in due season. |
| 12 That the peoples may know of your power * and the glorious splendor of your kingdom. | 17 You open wide your hand *
and satisfy the needs of every living creature. |
| 13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; *
your dominion endures throughout all ages. | 18 The LORD is righteous in all his ways *
and loving in all his works. |
| 14 The LORD is faithful in all his words * and merciful in all his deeds. | 19 The LORD is near to those who call upon him, *
to all who call upon him faithfully. |

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Ephesians 3:14-21

I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

THE GOSPEL LESSON – John 6:1-21

Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world."

When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

SERMON NOTES:

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANGEL LECTERN

Given to the Glory of God and in memory of Sarah Nichol.

The bronze angel lectern was given by the Parish Aid Society in memory of Sarah Nichol who had served as treasurer of the Society from 1874 to 1894. St. Gabriel the Archangel is seen with his trumpet. On the base are these words of appreciation for Sarah: "She doth little kindnesses Which most leave undone or despise For naught that sets one's heart at ease and giveth happiness or peace is low esteemed in her eyes." The lectern was designed by C. J. Upjohn in 1894 and cast by A. T. Lorme of New York in 1895. The lecture was dedicated on Ascension Day, 1895.

By Fletch Coke, Cathedral Archivist

The Cathedral Archives have assembled a detailed report of all gifts, memorials, and bequests from 1831 through 2014. This material was produced through research of the vestry minutes, church bulletins, newsletters, and the annual reports of Christ Church Cathedral and Davidson County will records. For more information, go to archives.christcathedral.org or refer to the Book of Remembrance in the Wheeler Room.

EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY (EfM)

EfM is a Christian education and formation program developed by the School of Theology at Sewanee, which takes place at Episcopal churches across the country and online. EfM covers the basics of a theological education in the Old and New Testaments, church history, liturgy, and theology with emphasis on theological reflection. Students enroll for one year at a time and complete the course in four years. More information is available on the EfM website, efm.sewanee.edu. The cost is $350/year. Partial scholarships may be available. Christ Church groups meet on Tuesday evenings or Wednesday mornings during the academic year and each has room for a limited number of new students. Enrollment for new and returning students is underway now on a first-come first-served basis. The registration deadline is August 3. If you are interested in beginning or continuing participation, please contact Becky Rochford, brochford@christcathedral.org or 615.255.7729.

CATHEDRAL'S HANDS OF MERCY EVENT THE NASHVILLE FOOD PROJECT

SATURDAY, AUGUST 22
9:00 A.M. TO 12:00 P.M.

"Hands of Mercy" events are one-time opportunities for members of the Cathedral congregation to serve and benefit a worthy institution supported by the Cathedral. The next Hands of Mercy event will be August 22, 2015, at the Nashville Food Project, located on the campus of Woodmont Christian Church at 3605 Hillsboro Pike. Approximately 35 volunteers are needed to work in TNFP's garden and prepare food. Garden volunteers will work from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m., and food prep will take place from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. The food prep team will prepare meals in the kitchen, using recovered, donated, and garden-grown food to cook healthy hot meals. There's a lot of creativity involved in planning meals based on what comes in from the food donation partners—and a lot of work for the volunteers who chop, slice, clean, assemble, blanch, compost, and cook. Children age 10 and up are welcome to participate, so this will be a wonderful opportunity for families to work together to help the vulnerable populations served by the Nashville Food Project. For more information or to volunteer, please contact Charles Hall at charles.w.hall@vanderbilt.edu.

UPCOMING CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD TRAINING

Christ Church Cathedral will be offering a Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Level I training course for adults. Level I of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd covers the presentations that are offered to 3-6 year olds. The course includes information on the characteristics of the 3-6 year old child and lessons that have been used over the past 50 years to encourage the faith life of young children through prayer, liturgy and the Bible. A typical training lasts for 90 hours and Christ Church will offer a new format for this class. The course will meet as follows:

Saturday, September 12, 9 a.m.–2 p.m.;
Saturday, January 30, 9 a.m.–2 p.m.; and Wednesdays, dinner at 5:30 p.m. followed by class from 6 to 8 p.m. These classes will be held beginning September 16 and continue to November 11; they will break until January 13 and continue to April 13
(with breaks for Ash Wednesday and Holy Week).

Childcare and meals will be provided for all classes. There is a nominal charge for the meal and a $35 registration fee for Christ Church Cathedral parishioners. Completion of this course will prepare you to lead a Level I class for children or you may want to take this class for your own spiritual growth. Adult participants of all ages are welcome.

You may register online at christcathedral.org or contact Becky Rochford at brochford@christcathedral.org for more information.

BREAKING BREAD AT 6

Beginning October 18, the Cathedral will add a fourth Sunday Liturgy, gathering in the evening.

*Informal worship in the tradition of Common Prayer.
Hymns accompanied by local musicians.
Come as you are. Come with a friend.
All are Welcome!*

Watch for more details over the summer and begin spreading the word!

CATHEDRAL FLOWERS

The beautiful flowers you see in the Cathedral every Sunday are placed to the glory of God and often in thanksgiving for or in memory of a loved one. They express the generosity of those who contribute to our Flower Fund. Cost: $150. To give flowers on an upcoming Sunday, contact Peggy Tucker at 615.255.7729 or ptucker@christcathedral.org.
