HYMN 429 – I'll praise my maker while I've breath

Old 113th

OPENING ACCLAMATION (BCP, p. 355)

GLORIA S 280

Robert Powell

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Isaiah 35:4-7a

Say to those who are of a fearful heart,

“Be strong, do not fear!

Here is your God.

He will come with vengeance,
with terrible recompense.

He will come and save you.”

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,

and the ears of the deaf unstopped;

then the lame shall leap like a deer,

and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy.

For waters shall break forth in the wilderness,

and streams in the desert;

the burning sand shall become a pool,

and the thirsty ground springs of water.

- 1 Hallelujah!
Praise the LORD, O my soul! *
I will praise the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God while I have my being. Refrain
- 2 Put not your trust in rulers, nor in any child of earth, *
for there is no help in them.
- 3 When they breathe their last, they return to earth, *
and in that day their thoughts perish. Refrain
- 4 Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their help! *
whose hope is in the LORD their God;
- 5 Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is in them; *
who keeps his promise for ever;
- 6 Who gives justice to those who are oppressed, *
and food to those who hunger. Refrain
- 7 The LORD sets the prisoners free;
the LORD opens the eyes of the blind; *
the LORD lifts up those who are bowed down;
- 8 The LORD loves the righteous;
the LORD cares for the stranger; *
he sustains the orphan and widow,
but frustrates the way of the wicked.
- 9 The LORD shall reign for ever, *
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.
Hallelujah! Refrain

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – James 2:1-17

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?

You do well if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. For the one who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty. For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Mark 7:24-37

Jesus set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter." So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

THE NICENE CREED (BCP, p. 358)

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, FORM IV (BCP, p. 388)

CONFESSION OF SIN (BCP, p. 359)

A ORDER OF FAREWELL TO CHURCH MEMBERS

This is an act of public farewell to a church member or family moving to another community.

In any liturgy of the assembled congregation, as a Response to the Word, or at some other suitable point in the service, the Dean calls forward the person who is moving to be recognized. He faces the congregation.

The pastor may briefly describe the contributions of the person to the congregation and then proceed with this order.

The Dean:

The church is a family.

United by baptism and the common recognition of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, we are all brothers and sisters.

And, for a time, Christ Church Cathedral is our home.

Like every human family,

our church family is formed and reformed over time:

as members are born, as they die,

as members are adopted into our family, and as they leave our congregation for a new home, in a different place.

For a time, Scott Smith has lived with us.
We have shared each other's joys and sorrows,
we have lightened each other's heavy loads.
Together we have laughed and cried,
together we have worshiped and praised God,
together we have followed Christ as his disciples.

Congregation:

We feel sorrow in your leaving,
yet we rejoice with you in anticipation of the new chapter of ministry that awaits you at Trinity Church Wall Street.

We will miss your love and support,
yet we know you will add much to the lives
of those who await you, just as you have added much to our lives.

We will pray for you as we pray for the whole family of God.

The Dean:

Let us pray:

O God, you are the strength and the protector of your people.
We humbly place in your hands Scott Smith of this Cathedral congregation who is about to leave us.

Keep and preserve him, O Lord,
in all health and safety, both of body and soul;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Scott, our prayers go with you. Amen.

He that is down need fear no fall

John Dowland
(1563-1626)

He that is down need fear no fall,
he that is low no pride;
he that is humble ever shall

I am content with what I have,
little be it or much;
and, Lord, contentment still I crave
because thou savest such.

Fullness to such a burden is
that go on pilgrimage;
here little and hereafter bliss
is best from age to age.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE CATHEDRAL SAYS FAREWELL TO SCOTT SMITH

Scott Smith will become Head Sacristan at Trinity Wall Street in New York effective Tuesday, September 8, 2015. He has served since 2005 as volunteer sacristan and vergers at Christ Church Cathedral. These roles can trace their history to the early days of the Christian Church. The sacristan today is similar to a stage manager who helps ensure that the liturgy unfolds in an orderly and beautiful manner. The verger, wearing a black robe and carrying a virge, escorts processions and people on special occasions like Holy Baptisms and Solemn Holy Eucharists. The Episcopal Church has thousands of volunteer sacristans and vergers across the country. Some parishes have staff members who lead these activities, including National Cathedral in Washington, Grace Cathedral in San Francisco, and Trinity Wall Street, among others. Scott will be responsible for managing the sacristy and the staff sacristans as well as organizing and supporting the many volunteer vergers and liturgical servers at Trinity. He says his number one job, however, will be to welcome everyone who visits the church every day. He hopes that many Christ Church Cathedral parishioners will visit often! Today at the 8 and 10 a.m. Liturgies we will recognize him, pray for him, and commend him to Trinity Wall Street. He may be contacted at scott@vergers.org.

Foyer Groups provide an opportunity for parishioners to get to know each other and experience parish life by gathering to talk and share in friendship. Each Foyer Group is made up of 8 to 10 parishioners that meet once a month at various locations throughout Nashville. Foyer Groups are open to everyone throughout the church. The portrait of Bishop Polk, by Cornelius Hankins, belonged to the bishop's daughter Katherine Polk Gale, who was the grandmother of W. Dudley Gale.
