COLLECT OF THE DAY

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Wisdom of Solomon 1:16 – 2:1, 12-22

The ungodly by their words and deeds summoned death;
considering him a friend, they pined away
and made a covenant with him,
because they are fit to belong to his company.
For they reasoned unsoundly, saying to themselves,
“Short and sorrowful is our life,
and there is no remedy when a life comes to its end,
and no one has been known to return from Hades.

“Let us lie in wait for the righteous man,
because he is inconvenient to us and opposes our actions;
he reproaches us for sins against the law,
and accuses us of sins against our training.
He professes to have knowledge of God,
and calls himself a child of the Lord.
He became to us a reproof of our thoughts;
the very sight of him is a burden to us,
because his manner of life is unlike that of others,
and his ways are strange.
We are considered by him as something base,
and he avoids our ways as unclean;
he calls the last end of the righteous happy,
and boasts that God is his father.

Continues on the next page.

Let us see if his words are true,
 and let us test what will happen at the end of his life;
 for if the righteous man is God's child, he will help him,
 and will deliver him from the hand of his adversaries.
 Let us test him with insult and torture,
 so that we may find out how gentle he is,
 and make trial of his forbearance.
 Let us condemn him to a shameful death,
 for, according to what he says, he will be protected.”

Thus they reasoned, but they were led astray,
 for their wickedness blinded them,
 and they did not know the secret purposes of God,
 nor hoped for the wages of holiness,
 nor discerned the prize for blameless souls.

PSALM 54

| 1 Save me, O God, by your Name; *
 in your might, defend my cause. 2 Hear my prayer, O God; *
 give ear to the words of my mouth. 3 For the arrogant have risen up against me,
 and the ruthless have sought my life, *
 those who have no regard for God. 4 Behold, God is my helper; *
 it is the LORD who sustains my life. | 5 Render evil to those who spy on me; *
 in your faithfulness, destroy them. 6 I will offer you a freewill sacrifice * and praise your Name, O LORD, for it is good. 7 For you have rescued me from every trouble, *
 and my eye has seen the ruin of my foes. |

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – James 3:13 – 4:3, 7-8a

Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures.

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you.

HYMN 480 – When Jesus left his Father's throne

Kingsfold

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Mark 9:30-37

Jesus and his disciples went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, “The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.” But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you arguing about on the way?” But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them,

Continues on next page.

The Gospel Lesson continues

“Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.” Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, “Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.”

CHAPEL ALTAR

GIVEN TO THE GLORY OF GOD AND IN MEMORY OF MEDORA CHEATHAM THAYER

The original 1888 chapel, designed by Francis Hatch Kimball, faced 9th Avenue North. The chapel altar, a memorial to Medora Cheatham Thayer, who died on February 3, 1880, was given by her sister Ada Cheatham. By 1913, the Vestry recognized a need for more office and classroom space. Russell Hart, Nashville architect, presented plans for a Parish House to replace the original chapel and to create a "new" chapel adjacent to the chancel. The altar was moved to the new chapel. During 1971, the altar was placed on loan to the Orthodox Church of the Redeemer. In 2010, Wayne Boyle-Parsley, Bishop-Rector of St. Basil's Church, acquired the altar which he then gave back to the Cathedral. The altar was re-dedicated by Bishop John Bauerschmidt on December 16, 2010.

By Fletch Coke, Cathedral Archivist

The Cathedral Archives have assembled a detailed report of all gifts, memorials, and bequests from 1831 through 2014. This material was produced through research of the vestry minutes, church bulletins, newsletters, and the annual reports of Christ Church Cathedral and Davidson County will records. For more information, go to archives.christcathedral.org or refer to the Book of Remembrance in the Wheeler Room.
