COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Exodus 34:29-35

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

PSALM 99

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1 The LORD is King;let the people tremble; *he is enthroned upon the cherubim;let the earth shake.                  | 6 Moses and Aaron among his priests,and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, *they called upon the LORD, and he answered them. |
| 2 The LORD is great in Zion; *he is high above all peoples.   | 7 He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; *they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.                              |
| 3 Let them confess his Name, which is great and awesome; *he is the Holy One.   | 8 "O LORD our God, you answered them indeed; *you were a God who forgave them,yet punished them for their evil deeds."               |
| 4 "O mighty King, lover of justice,you have established equity; *you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob." | 9 Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our Godand worship him upon his holy hill; *for the LORD our God is the Holy One.               |
| 5 Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our Godand fall down before his footstool; *he is the Holy One.                    |  |

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – 2 Corinthians 3:12 – 4:2

Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Luke 9:28-43a

About eight days after Peter had acknowledged Jesus as the Christ of God, Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"--not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. Just then a man from the crowd shouted, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child. Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him. I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." Jesus answered, "You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. And all were astounded at the greatness of God.

THE OFFERTORY

ANTHEM

O Light of Light, Love given birth

Carey Ratcliff
(b. 1953)

O Light of Light, Love given birth;
Jesus, Redeemer of the earth:
more bright than day your face did show,
your raiment whiter than the snow.

Two prophets, who had faith to see,
with your elect found company;
the heavens above your glory named,
your Father's voice his Son proclaimed.

May all who seek to praise aright
through purer lives show forth your light.
To you, the King of glory, now
all faithful hearts adoring bow.

Congratulations to our Junior Choristers: This morning we celebrate the achievement of our youngest Cathedral Choristers. The five Junior Choristers who joined the choir in September 2015 have completed Level I of the Royal School of Church Music curriculum. Their significant progress has earned them the privilege of wearing the white Chorister surplice along with their purple cassock. This is a very important moment in the life of a Cathedral Chorister. This white surplice identifies a chorister who has learned to implement many of the skills necessary to be a true leader in the liturgy—not simply one who possesses a good voice and the fundamentals of musicianship, but one who expresses a love for what they do every week and a commitment to always learning, bettering themselves, and guiding others. The Choristers who will receive their surplices this morning are: Baker Hasty, Opal Ivester, Jonas Simmons, Jack Stanley, and Clark Steffan. We also recognize Junior Chorister Evelyn Bessey who has completed Level II of the RSCM curriculum and has earned her Chorister cross.

ASH WEDNESDAY

FEBRUARY 10, 2016

7:00 A.M., 12:15 P.M. AND 6:00 P.M. LITURGIES
IN THE NAVE

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, when we begin a time of reflection, self-examination, and spiritual redirection. Lent originated in the very earliest days of the Church as preparation for Easter, when the faithful rededicated themselves and when converts were instructed in the faith and were prepared for baptism. Jesus was sent by the Holy Spirit into the wilderness for 40 days to prepare for his ministry. By observing Lent, we join Jesus on his fast in the wilderness as we consider our mortality and dependence on God.

During the Liturgy the foreheads of worshipers are marked with an ashen cross. Being marked with a cross symbolizes that the person belongs to God. This is in imitation of the mark with chrism that is put on in baptism, when we are "marked as Christ's own forever." The ashes are traditionally made from palm fronds from the previous year's Palm Sunday observance.

WEATHER ADVISORIES: When inclement weather strikes, please check the Cathedral website, christcathedral.org, for current notices about schedules at the Cathedral.

WOMEN'S RETREAT

February 26-28, 2016

Montgomery Bell State Park

All women of Christ Church Cathedral are invited and encouraged to attend the annual Women's Retreat at Montgomery Bell State Park. This weekend is a rare opportunity for the women of our congregation to come together in fellowship and friendship and to spend deliberate time thinking, praying, listening, and talking about our faith and lives. This year's theme is "Listening as a Spiritual Practice," led by our guest speaker, the Reverend Danielle Thompson, who will explore how being attentive to the voices of God, self, and others is a vital part of our spiritual life. We will engage topics such as discernment and decision-making, attention and distraction, and especially the art of receiving and telling stories. Whether your daily life is full of quiet or noise, and whether you prefer silence or sound, this retreat aims to help you listen well to the call that is happening all around us.
