To Visitors

Welcome! We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Page numbers refer to the Book of Common Prayer, which is the red book located in the rack on the back of the pew in front of you. The Hymnal is the blue book. Anyone sitting near you will be happy to answer questions about worship at Christ Church Cathedral and opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. Please complete a Visitor's Card and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about the Cathedral. Thank you for visiting!

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Joshua 5:9-12

The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away from you the disgrace of Egypt." And so that place is called Gilgal to this day.

While the Israelites were camped in Gilgal they kept the Passover in the evening on the fourteenth day of the month in the plains of Jericho. On the day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain. The manna ceased on the day they ate the produce of the land, and the Israelites no longer had manna; they ate the crops of the land of Canaan that year.

PSALM 32

- | | | | |
|---|--|----|--|
| 1 | Happy are they whose transgressions are forgiven, *
and whose sin is put away! | 8 | You are my hiding-place;
you preserve me from trouble; *
you surround me with shouts of deliverance. |
| 2 | Happy are they to whom the LORD imputes no guilt, * and in whose spirit there is no guile! | 9 | "I will instruct you and teach you in the way that you should go; *
I will guide you with my eye. |
| 3 | While I held my tongue, my bones withered away, *
because of my groaning all day long. | 10 | Do not be like horse or mule, which have no understanding; *
who must be fitted with bit and bridle,
or else they will not stay near you." |
| 4 | For your hand was heavy upon me day and night; *
my moisture was dried up as in the heat of summer. | 11 | Great are the tribulations of the wicked; *
but mercy embraces those who trust in the LORD. |
| 5 | Then I acknowledged my sin to you, *
and did not conceal my guilt. | 12 | Be glad, you righteous, and rejoice in the LORD; *
shout for joy, all who are true of heart. |
| 6 | I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD." *
Then you forgave me the guilt of my sin. | | |
| 7 | Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of trouble; *
when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach them. | | |

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – 2 Corinthians 5:16-21

From now on, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32

All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, “This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

So Jesus told them this parable:

“There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.’ So he divided his property between them. A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands.”’ So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ But the father said to his slaves, ‘Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!’ And they began to celebrate.

“Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.’ Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, ‘Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!’ Then the father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.’”

SERMON – The Very Reverend Timothy E. Kimbrough

A moment of silence and reflection follows the sermon.

ANTHEM

Love bade me welcome

David Hurd
(b. 1950)

Love bade me welcome, yet my soul drew back, guilty of dust and sin.
But quick-eyed Love observing me grow slack from my first entrance in,
drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning
if I lacked anything.

“A guest,” I answered, “worthy to be here.”
Love said, “you shall be he.”
“I, the unkind, ungrateful? Ah, my dear,
I cannot look on thee.”
Love took my hand and smiling did reply,
“Who made the eyes but I?”

“Truth, Lord but I have marred them: let my shame go where it doth deserve.”
“And know you not,” says Love, “who bore the blame?”
“My dear, then I will serve.”
“You must sit down,” says Love, “and taste my meat.”
So I did sit and eat.

Motet

Remember not, Lord, our offences

Henry Purcell
(1659-1695)

Remember not, Lord, our offences
nor the offences of our forefathers,
neither take thou vengeance of our sins,
but spare us, good Lord, spare thy people,
whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood,
and be not angry with us forever.

Please join in the singing of the Communion hymn.

GIFTS OF GRATITUDE—TEARS OF JOY
HELPING IN HAITI

During Lent you can view a display in the Wheeler Room to learn more about how ERD is helping Haitians rebuild. You can help support ERD's work in Haiti by picking up a "Hope Chest" – a small cardboard box (mite box) in which your daily contribution could be placed, a gift representative of a new spiritual discipline or sacrifice you have made this Lent. Additionally, the ERD 2016 Lenten Meditations book is available for you to pick up. This book of meditation will be your companion in the journey to Easter morning. There are also leaflets describing ERD's "Gifts for Life." For more information, email Reconciliation Committee Chair Jane Boram at jane2302@att.net. Also visit the Episcopal Relief & Development website at episcopalrelief.org.

FOYER GROUPS FORMING IN APRIL

Spring is right around the corner! What better way to celebrate than spending time with new and old friends? We are opening a spring session of parish Foyer Groups, running concurrently with the fall Foyer Group session. The spring session will run from April until summer. Foyer Groups provide an opportunity for parishioners to get to know each other and experience parish life by gathering to talk and share in friendship. Each Foyer Group is made up of 8 to 10 parishioners that meet once a month at various locations throughout Nashville. Whether you are a young adult, a family with children, long-time parishioners, or just visiting our parish and wanting to get involved, Foyer Groups are for you. For more information regarding Foyer Groups and to sign up, please go to: cognitofoms.com/ChristChurchCathedral1/JoinAFoyerGroupSpring2016. Please sign up by Easter Sunday, March 27. Group assignments will be made by the end of the first week of April. For questions or more information, contact Adam Hutson at ccc.foyergroups@gmail.com or by calling 865.922.8633.
